CELEBRATED LIVING

BIG SPENDER

featuring Partida Añejo Tequila

If you're tempted by conspicuous consumption (and who isn't this time of year?), this high-ticket item will certainly fit the bill. Bright, elegant Partida Añejo is the aged expression of this excellent tequila, made from the agave plantation of one of Mexico's most important growers. Use the best tawny port you can afford.

2 ¼ ounces Partida Añejo Tequila
1 ounce winter-spiced tawny port dash Angostura bitters preserved cherry for garnish

METHOD: To make the winter-spiced tawny port, pour one bottle of tawny port into a saucepan and heat slowly with cloves, cinnamon, allspice, orange peel, and brown sugar to taste. Strain and chill. To make the cocktail, stir all ingredients with ice in a mixing glass. Strain into a chilled cocktail glass. Garnish with a preserved cherry.
